MARY ANN
Without you bitching at me every day to do my work, I don't think I would have made it. Thanks a lot.
And try not to use that dirty language of yours, be like me.
Your best friend?
CHRIS.

MARY ANN,
TO a great girl I had the pleasure TO know and admire. Good Luck in the future. Don't Let mrs. Littral keep you from enjoying school.
Denny
George

MARY ANN
TO one of the cutest girls in my homeroom. And besides being cute you have a very sexy body!
Oh yea lets watch the hanky panky by the lockers.
I wish you all the luck
in the future.
'76' Mike Winck

Dear Mary Ann,
I really enjoy your humor. Keep it up. Good luck in Drama club next year. Ann

Mary Ann
To a really nice girl
I've known since 8th grade. Remember my science class that you were lab ass for. Good luck always Dave '76'

Mary Ann,

To a very nice and sweet girl or rather, young lady I met in 1st mod study hall. Thanks For all the help spelling words. I hope we can get to know each other better next year. Good luck in Chemistry and everything else.

A F A.

"76" Cindy Petter
For sure

MAW
To a brat I've known since I was one too! Wow - that's a long time. Remember all the good times we've had Clerical all your memories of Glenwood and Have fun at Mentor. Good luck in all you do
Patty Franson

Mary Ann,
To one of my greatest friends. You are known for your nicest and best example for all of us. May we follow in the good example and Good Luck in the future.
Patti

Mary Ann,
I wish you would quit writing "Mary Ann" in front of everything. It isn't for your name and really it's not that bad. Have made it through Language (Watch your Language)
Love ya Bordwine
Doug

Mary Ann,
Don't you wish you had taken Typing instead of Geometry? Ha Ha. Just kidding. Have a good summer and don't work too hard.
Love ya,
Mary Ann

"The reward of a thing well done is to have done it."
Emerson

As co-editors of GLEA this year, we have found this statement of Emerson's very meaningful. Our reward for hard work is the satisfaction of having put together a good yearbook. It is our hope that in the years to come you, as a past student of Glenwood, will look back and be touched by our attempt to preserve the memories that only seem like yesterday.

The 1974-75 Glea Staff
Proudly Dedicates "Glea '75" to Mr. "Red" Rittersbaugh

Mr. Rittersbaugh has been an active educator for the past thirty five years. We remember him most from the years we spent at Taft Jr. High School. Not only was he our principal but a good friend. Many of us enjoyed Saturday mornings, with him, on the bowling alley, as members of the bowling league he initiated.

Because of his dedication and great concern for us, we would like to show our appreciation by dedicating our book to this wonderful person.

There Are Places In My Past, Fading Faces In A Waking Dream. Though They Never Seem To Last, There Are Faces I Remember From The Places In My Past.

Mary Ann Timberly -

You are a constant delight to tease, and I thank you for that! We will (you & me) be vital cogs in next year's Drama Club which we'll attempt to make "the best"! Life is funny! ...?

There are places in my past. fading faces in a waking dream. Though they never seem to last, there are faces I remember from the places in my past.

Admidst lifes' adventurous miles I look back in time, and find that whatever I've been is whoever I am.

Sometimes I will laugh or cry without really understanding why, I still love those good times gone by.

With a look behind I see how I've grown.

Learning from those experiences I've encountered and known.

So hold on to them close.

I just seem to remember these thoughts and say I'm glad for the friends I know.

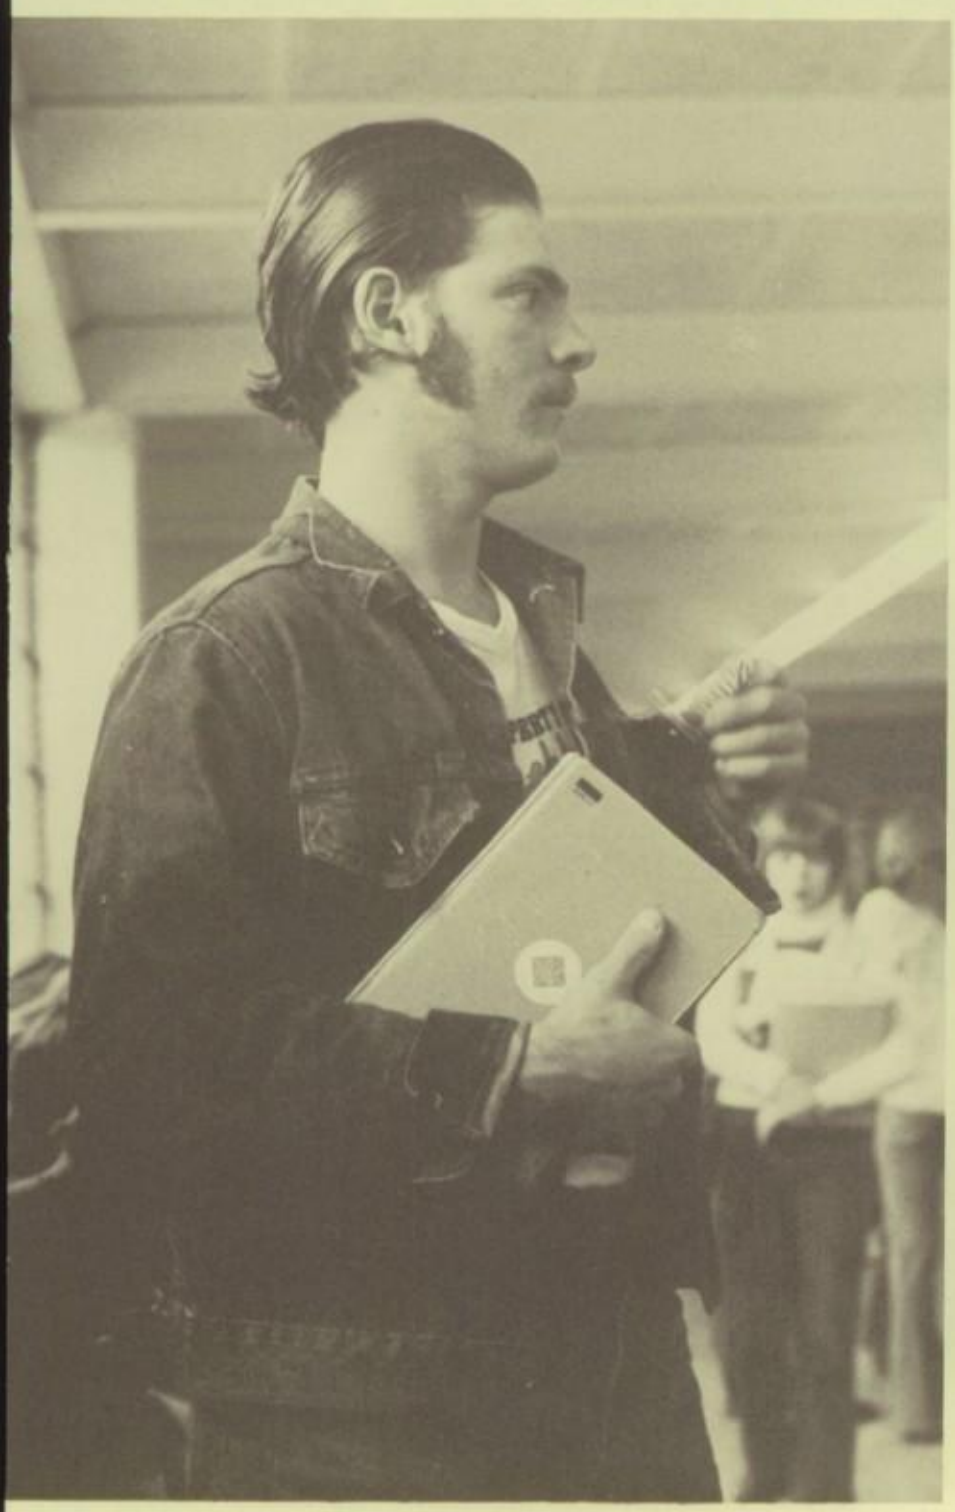
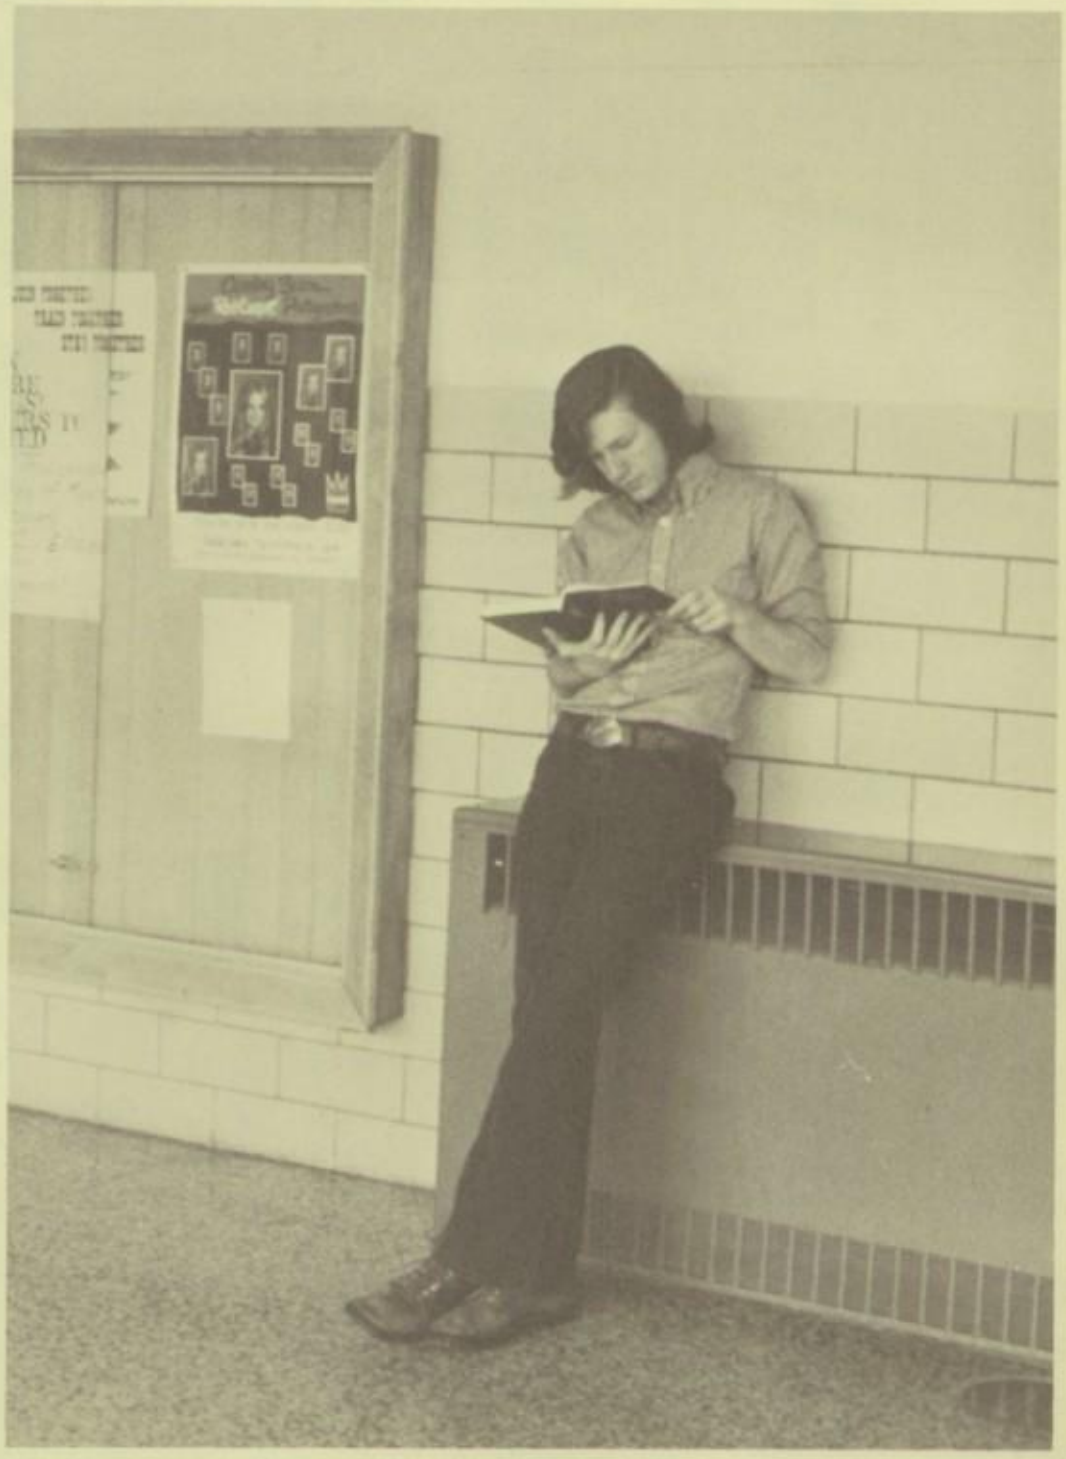
Got a light, man?

You've got to be kidding.

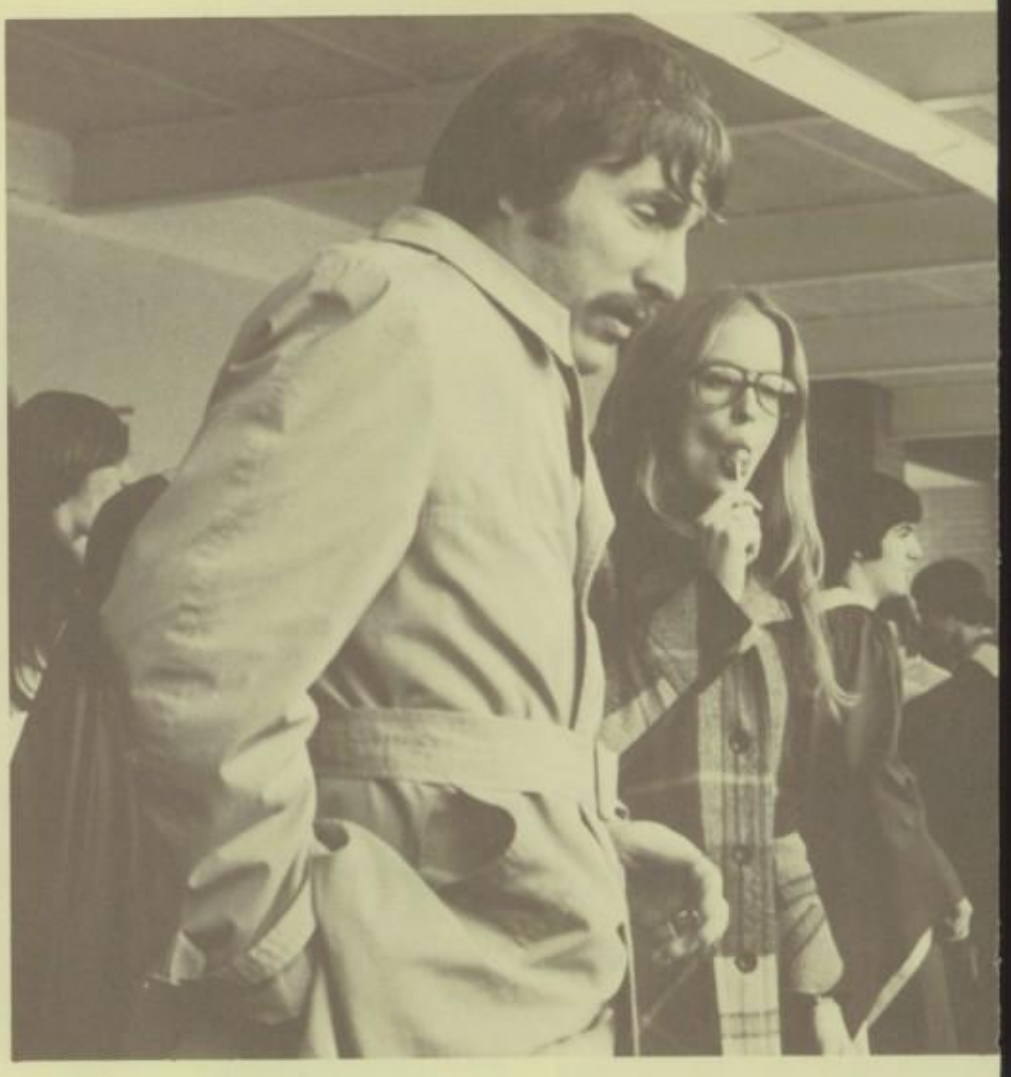


Wow, look at that chick.



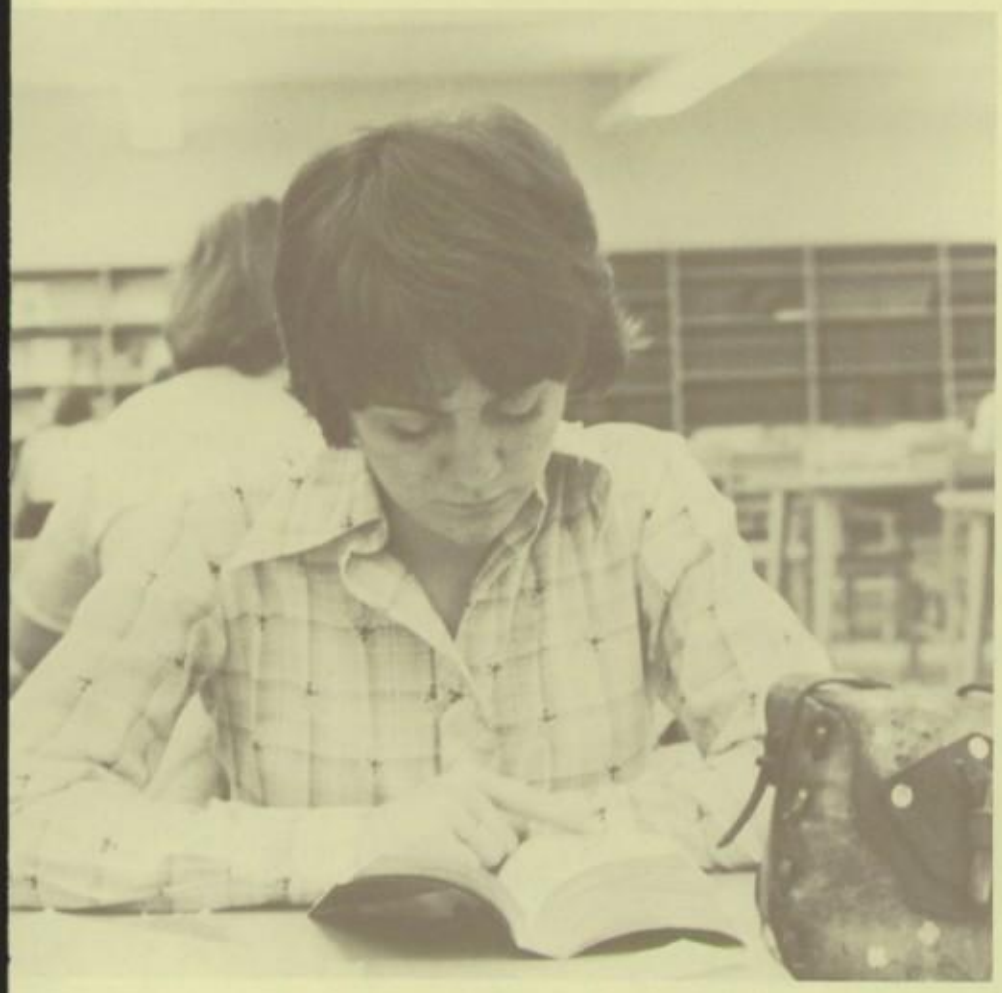
Very interesting.

Hey Marc what's that above your lip?

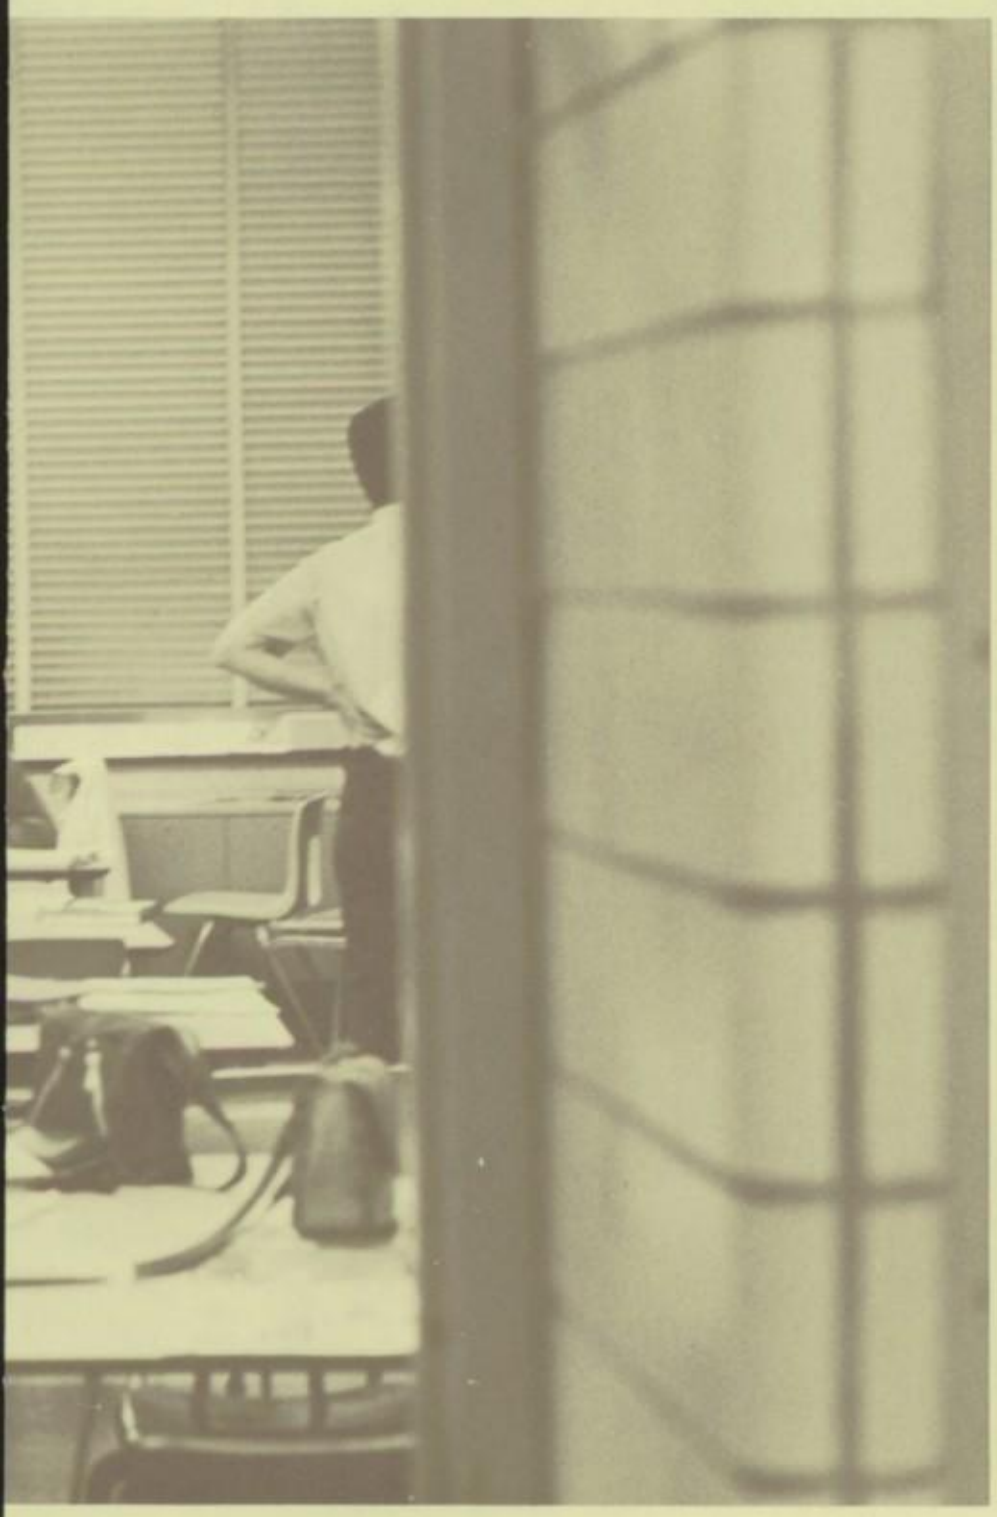


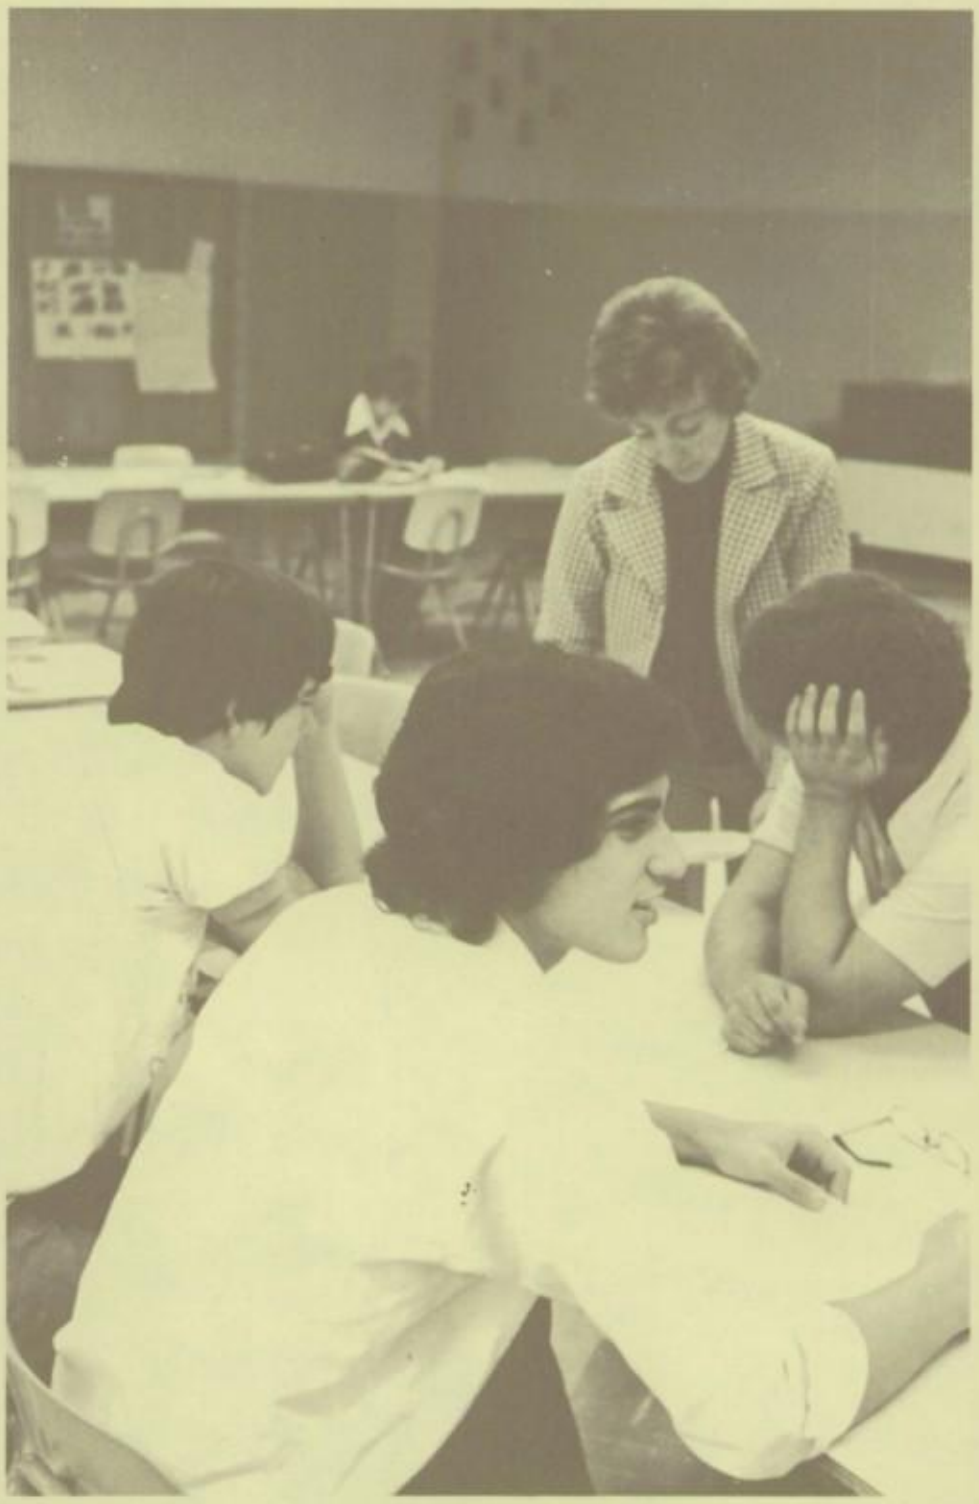
Anyone else want a lollipop?

I'll pretend I don't notice him.

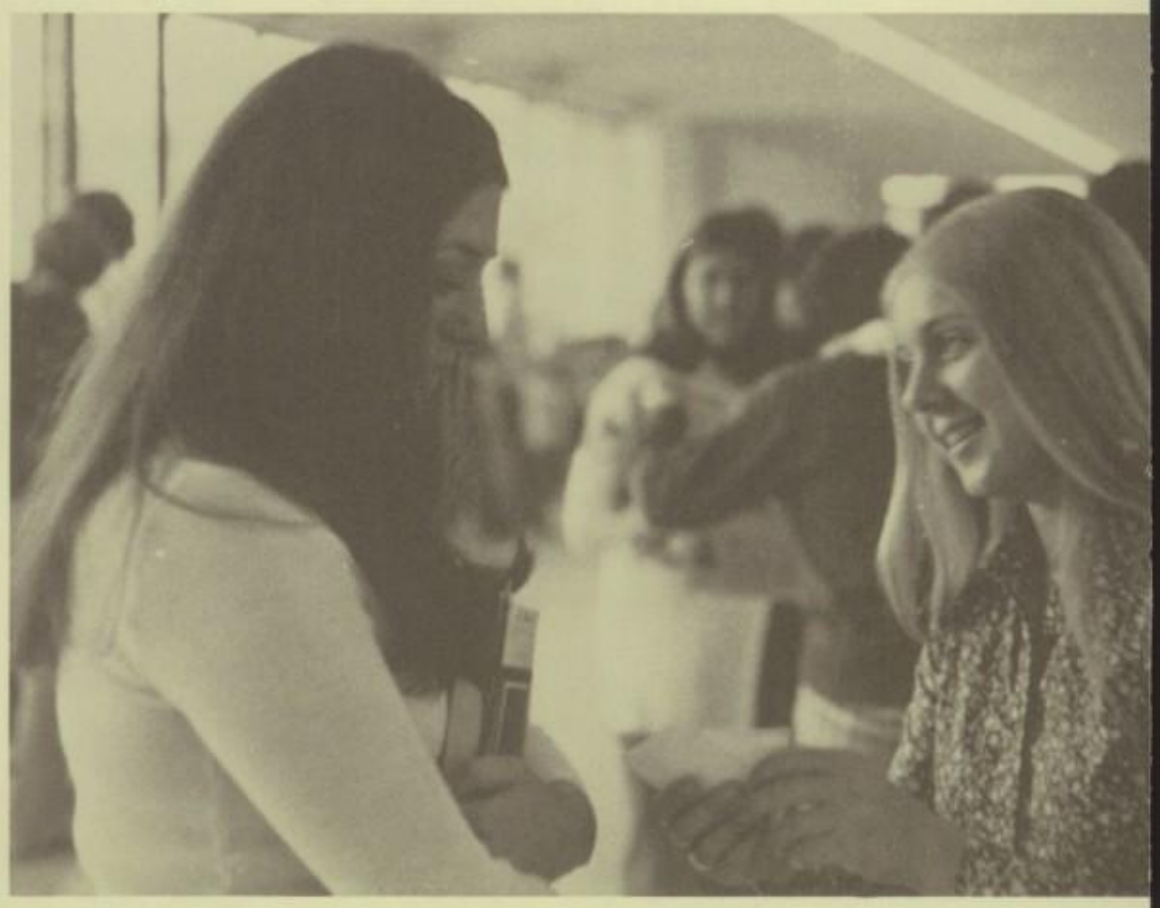


I'm a champion speed reader.





Maybe she won't notice we took her glasses.



Pick a card, any card.

Listen, this is the plan.

You can say that again.

How many times must I tell you, that is not your name.

You wanna make a bet?

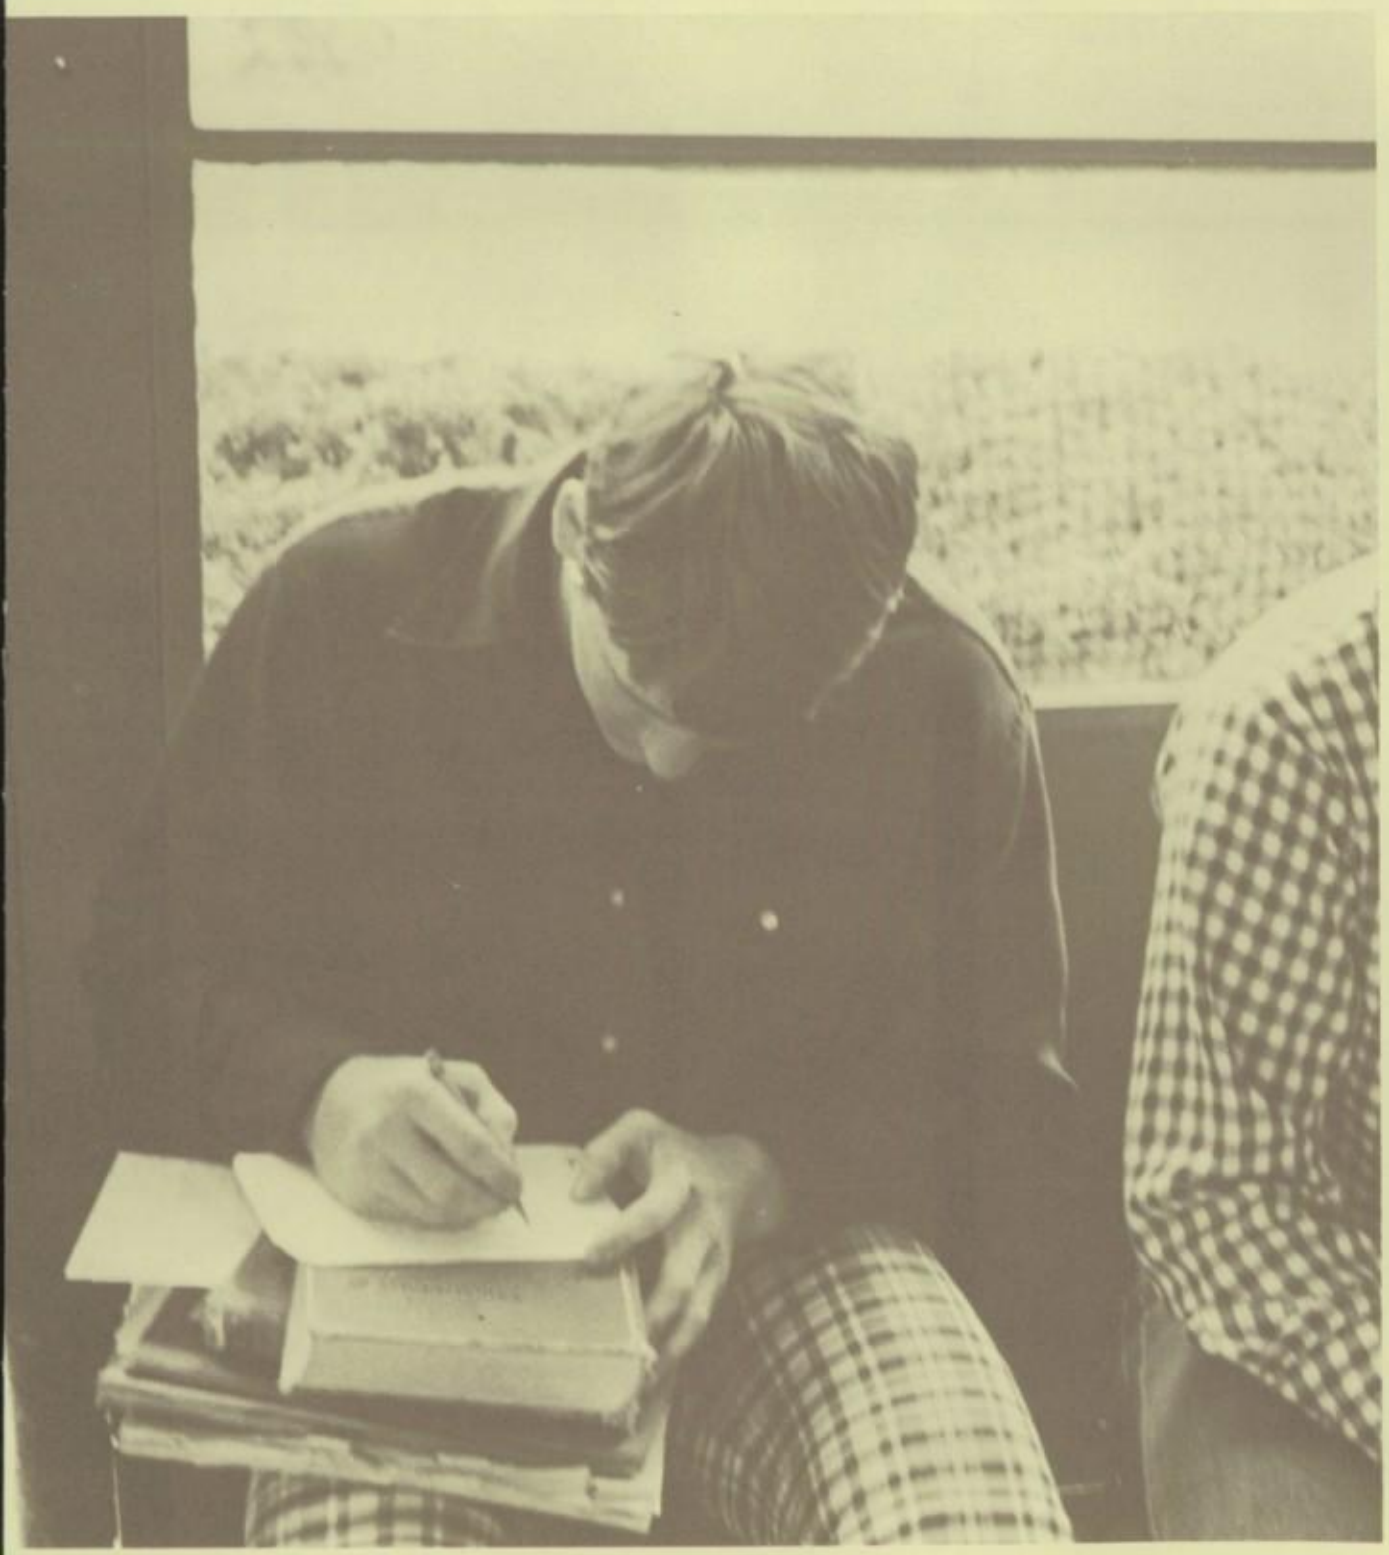
Anyone for a chicken fight?

What, me worry?

Duh!!

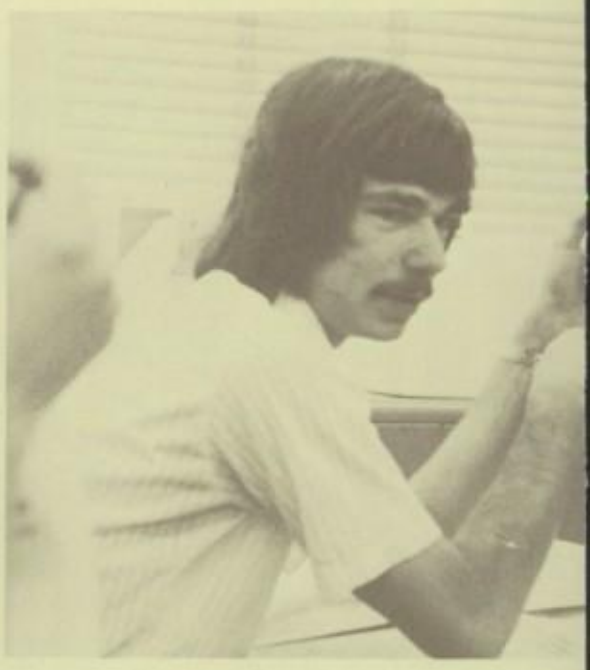
Is Sarah Really Studying?

Hey Lars, do they really make those movies there?



I wish I had my trusty calculator.

See ya'll later.

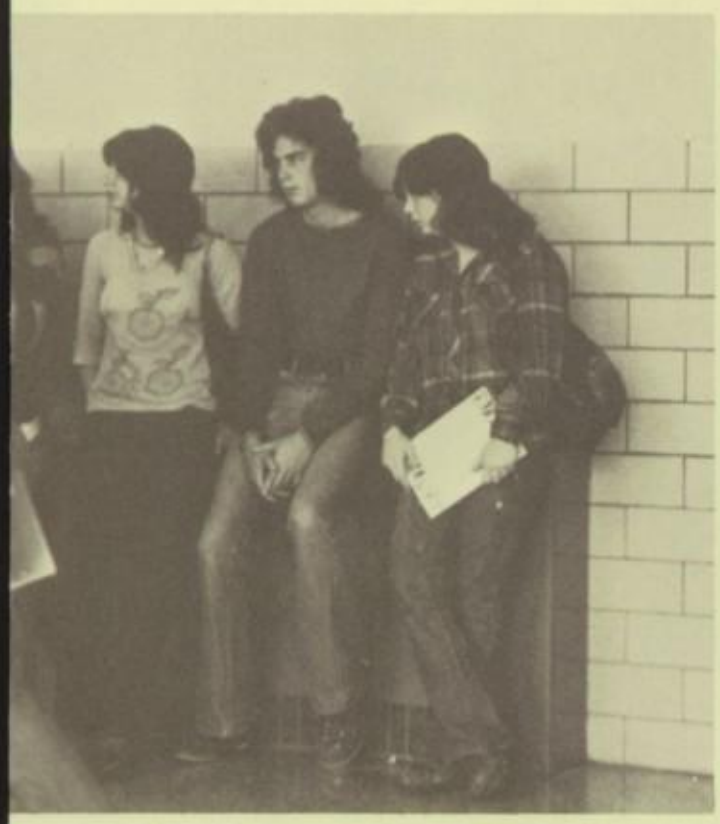


Will someone tell me what mod this is?

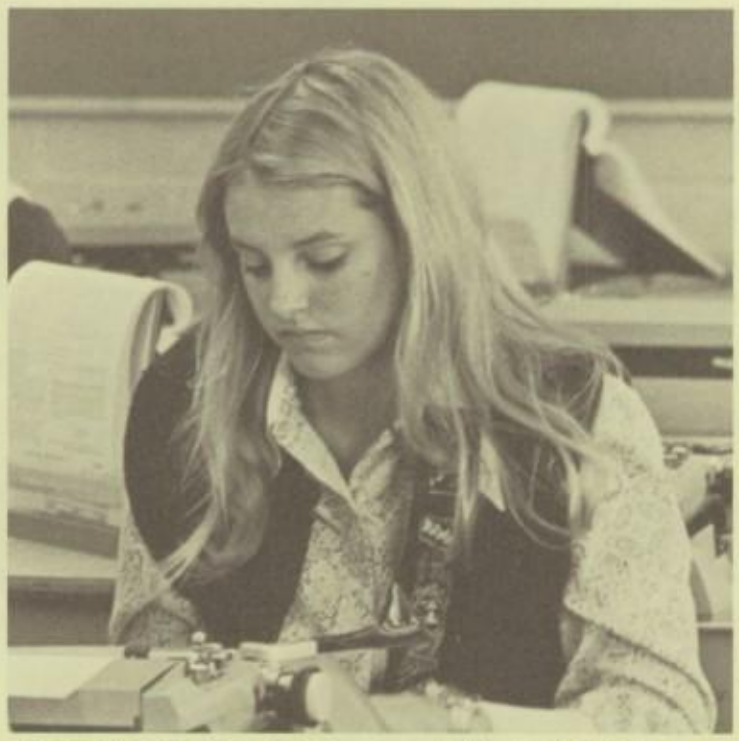
Heather, did you really write this story?

And then what did you say?

I forgot how to do this.



That's right, Kevin I heard it myself!



I can't help but look . . . AAA BBB CCC . . . how boring.

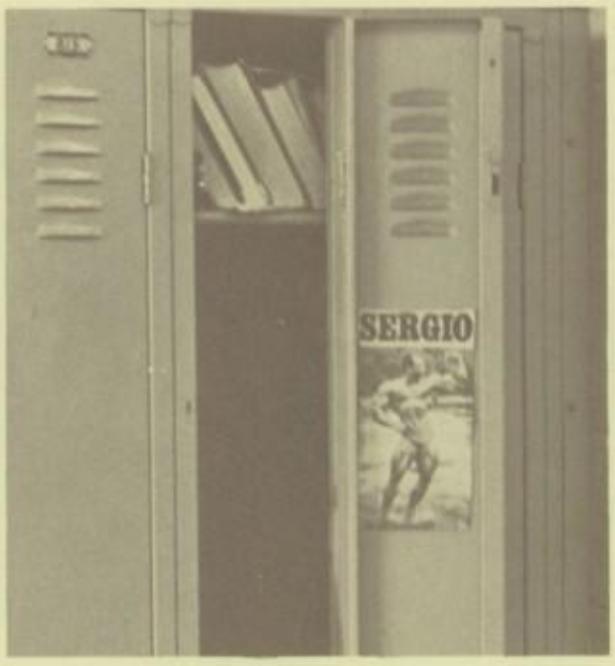
Vicky Lozonavich and Linda Richardson catch up on the latest gossip.

Do you have to go so fast, teacher?

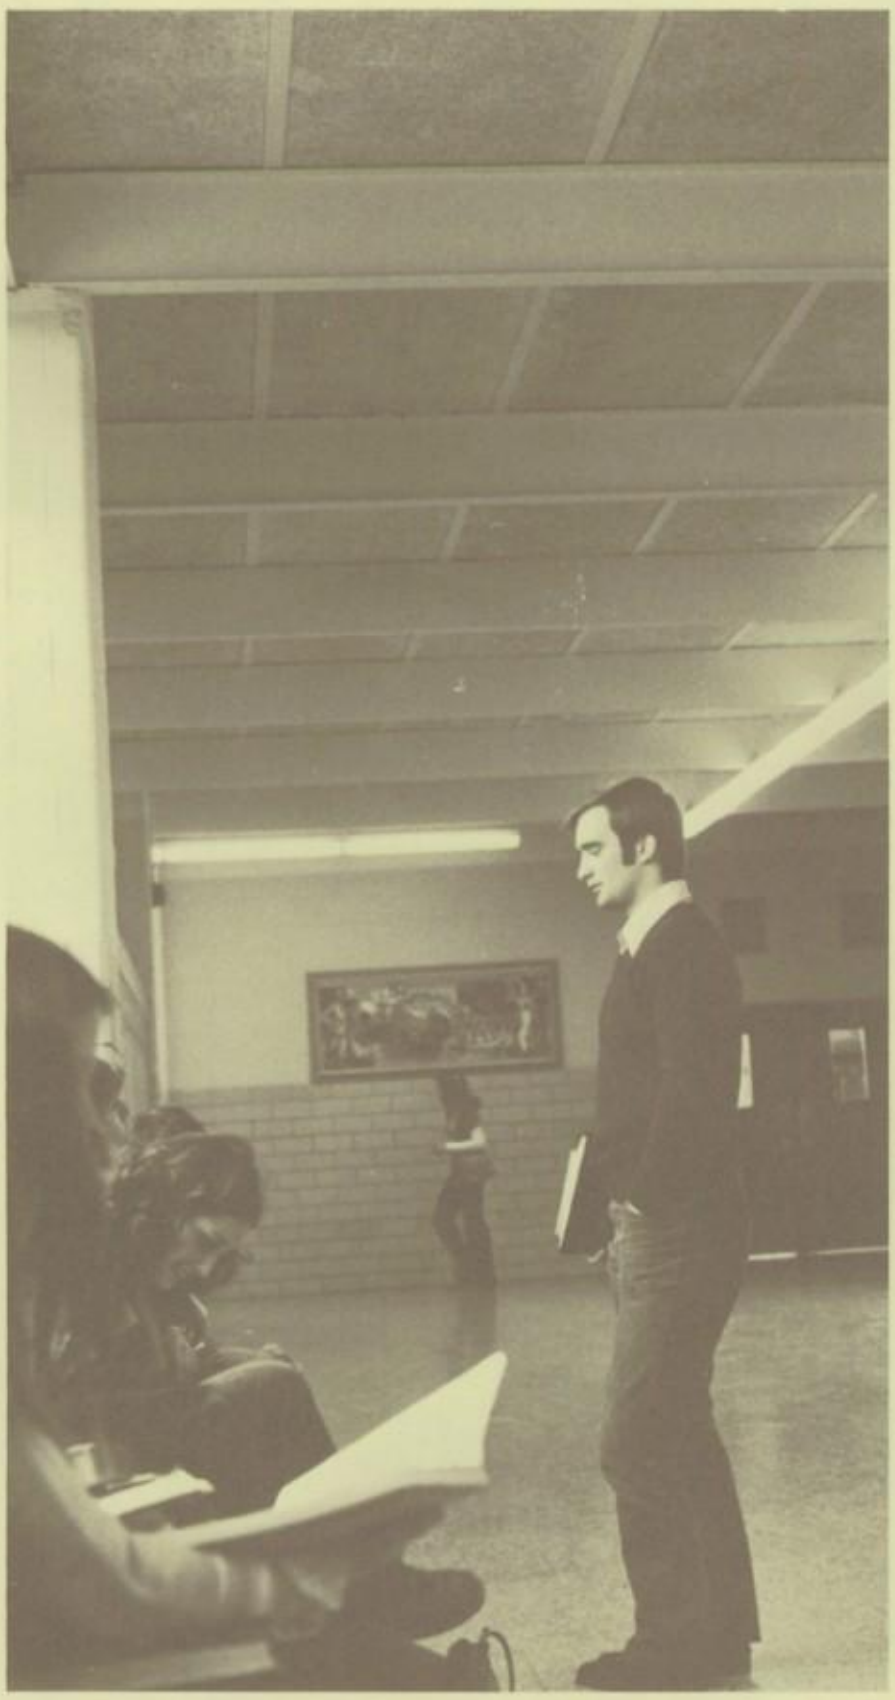
Hey guys, who cut the cheese?

The three musketeers, John Banahan, Paul Jamieson, and John Dorto.

Karen Goodin peeks at the letters on the keyboard.



Bertram's dream.



Make room for Danny!!

Lisa Ward passes time in study hall by reading Eagles View.

Grant Huston is caught daydreaming.

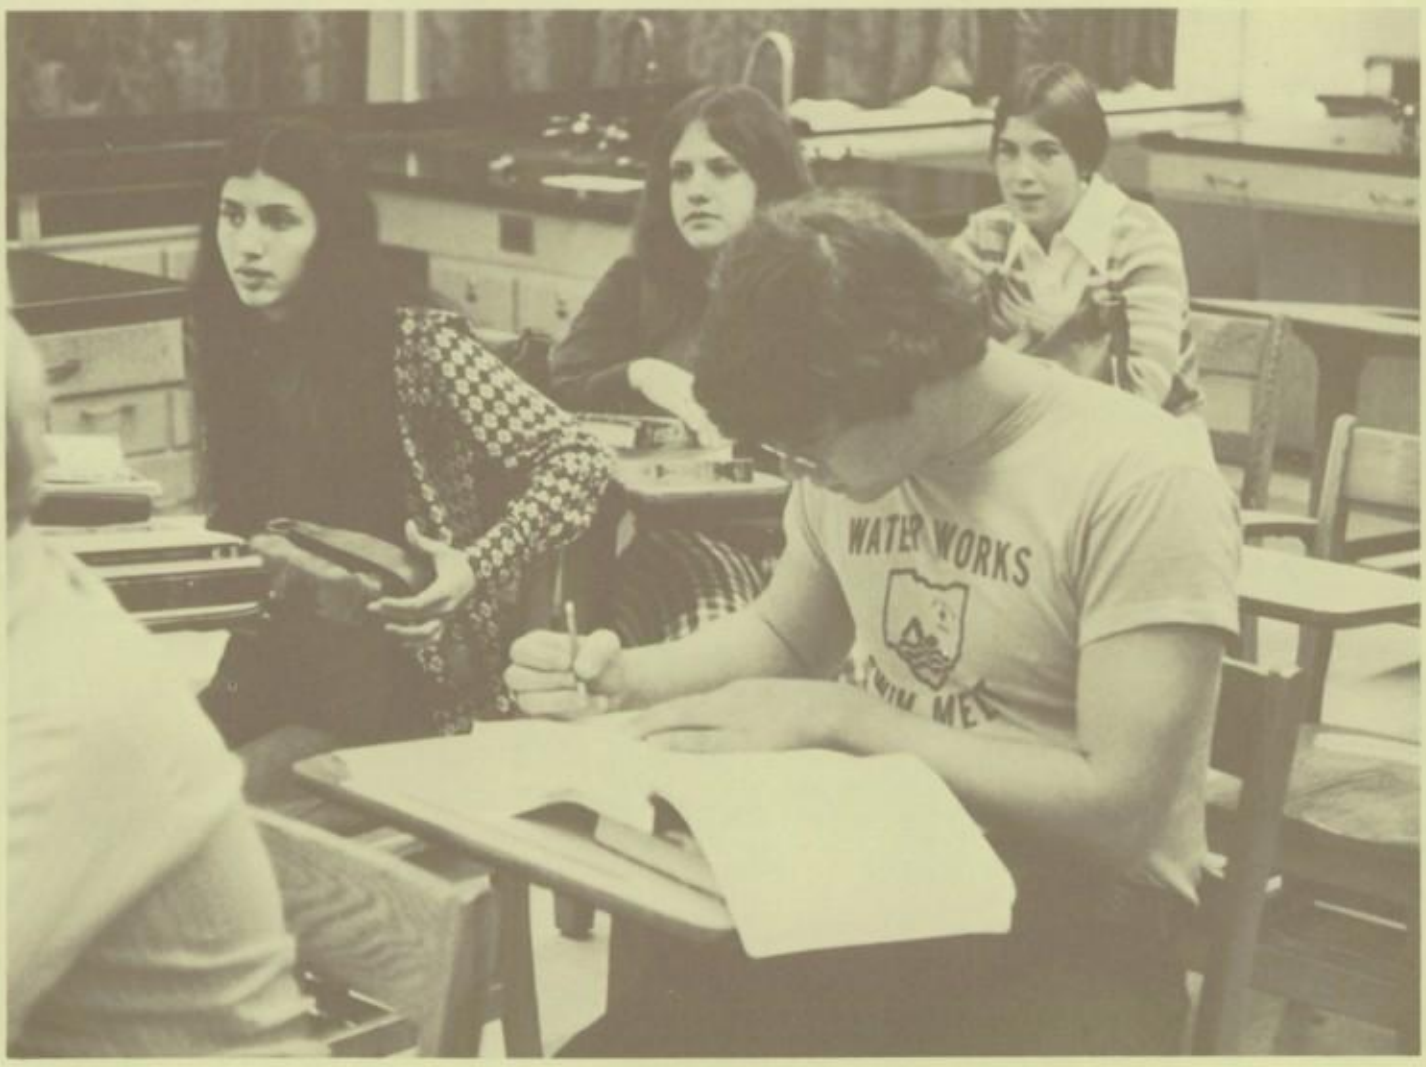
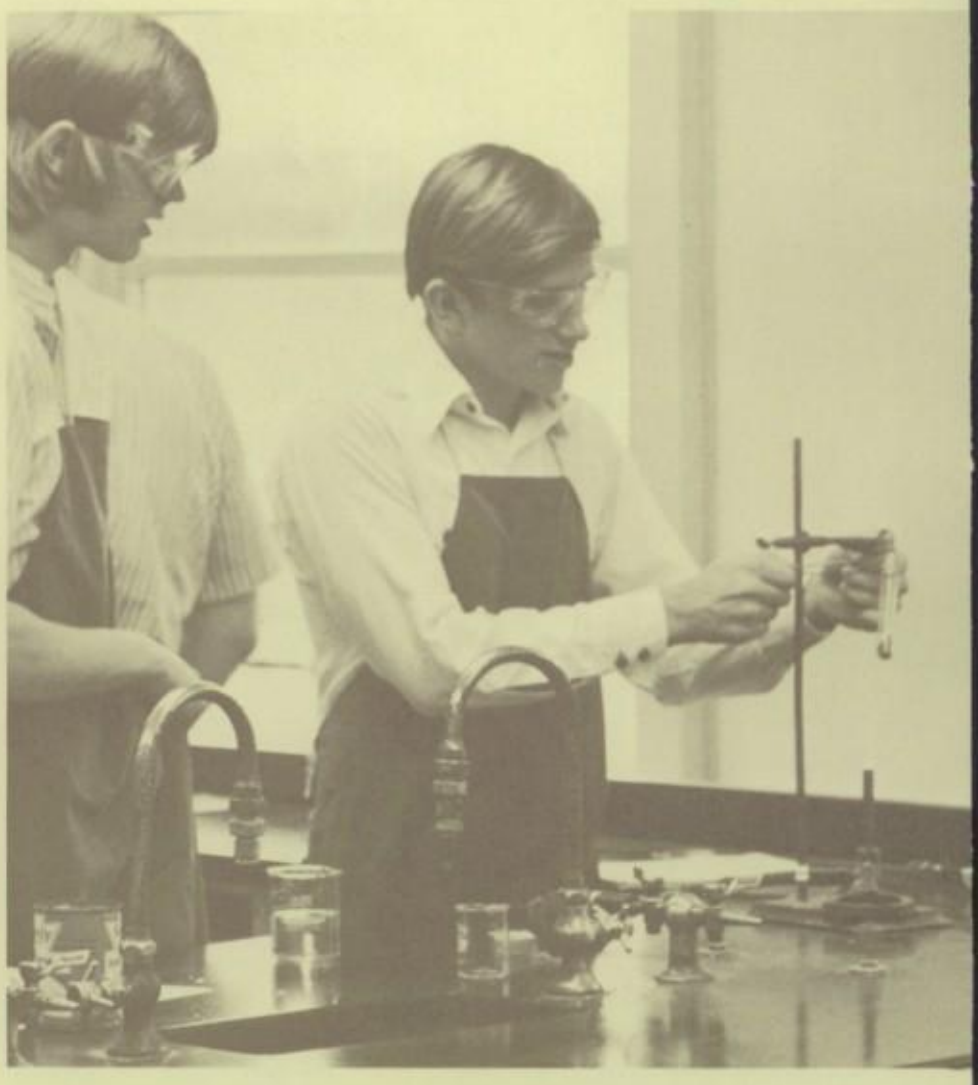
I hope this works.

Gee boys don't pick on me.



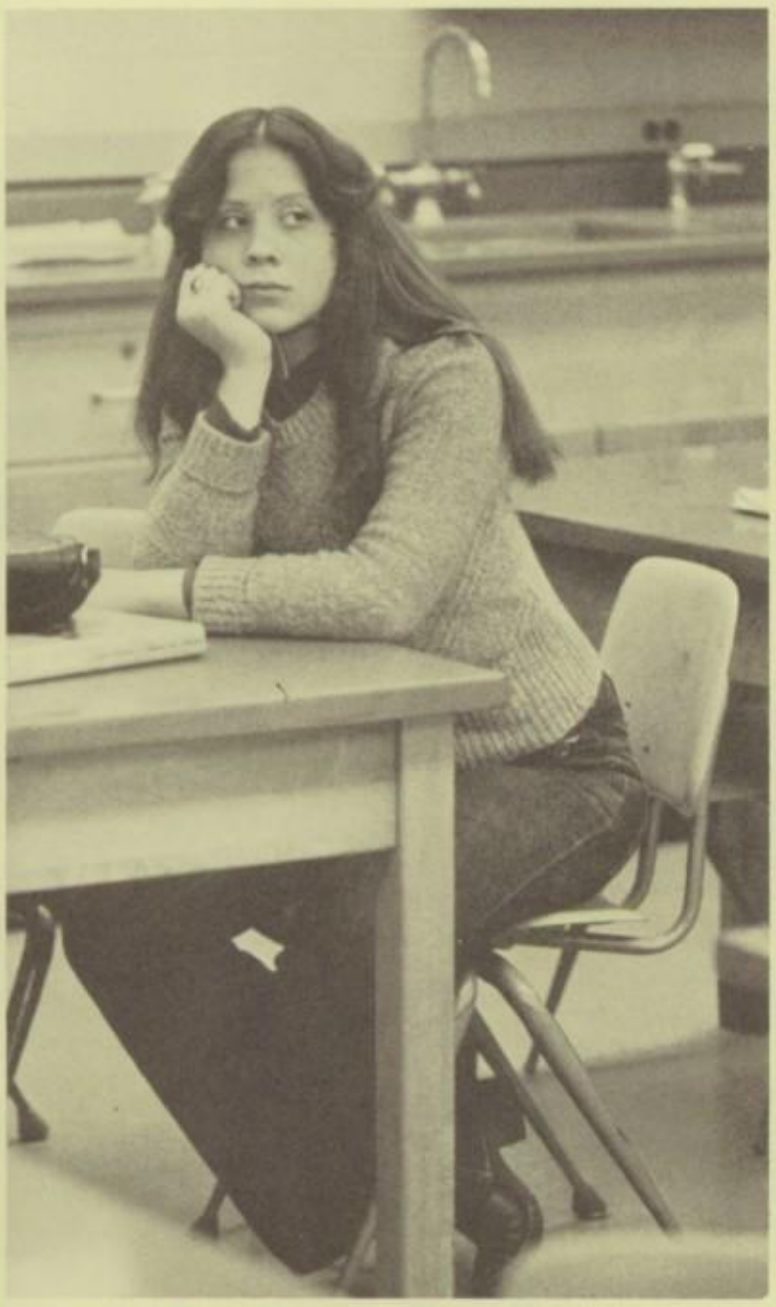
What? We're having a test tomorrow?



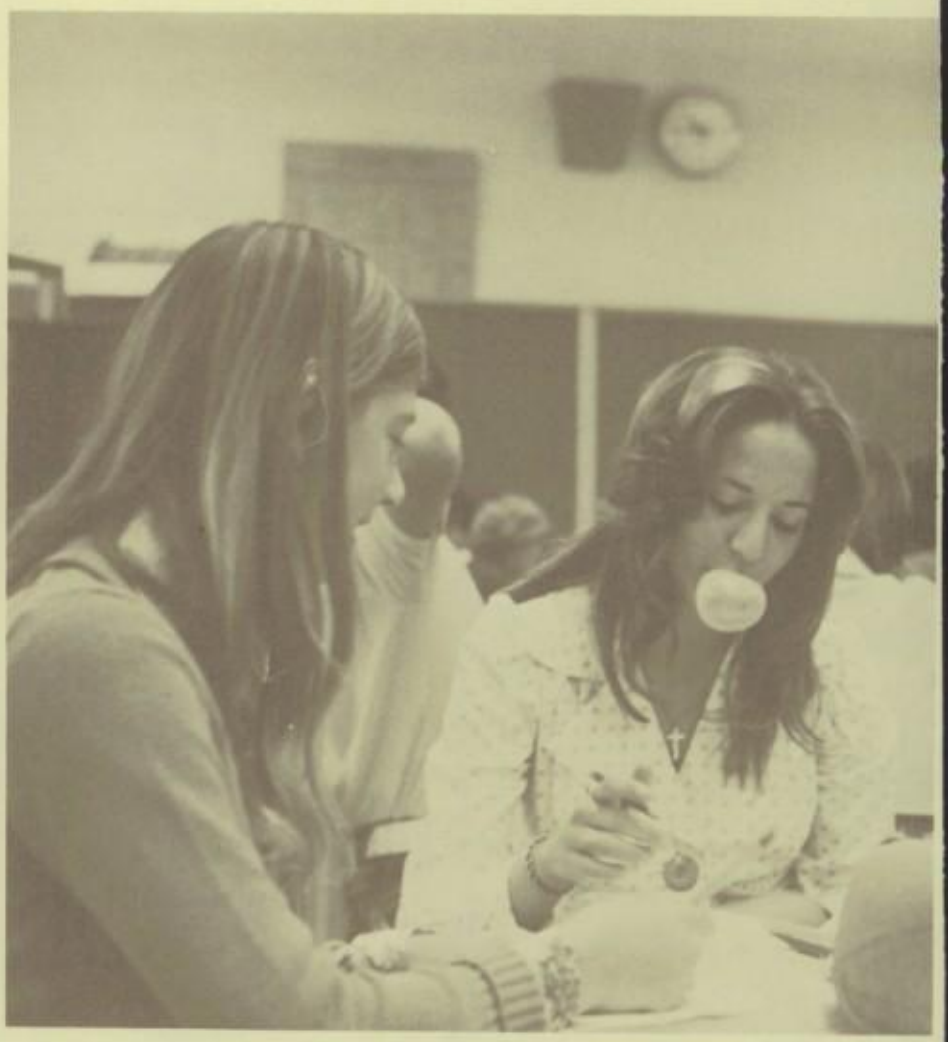
Stand back!! I think dis' is it!

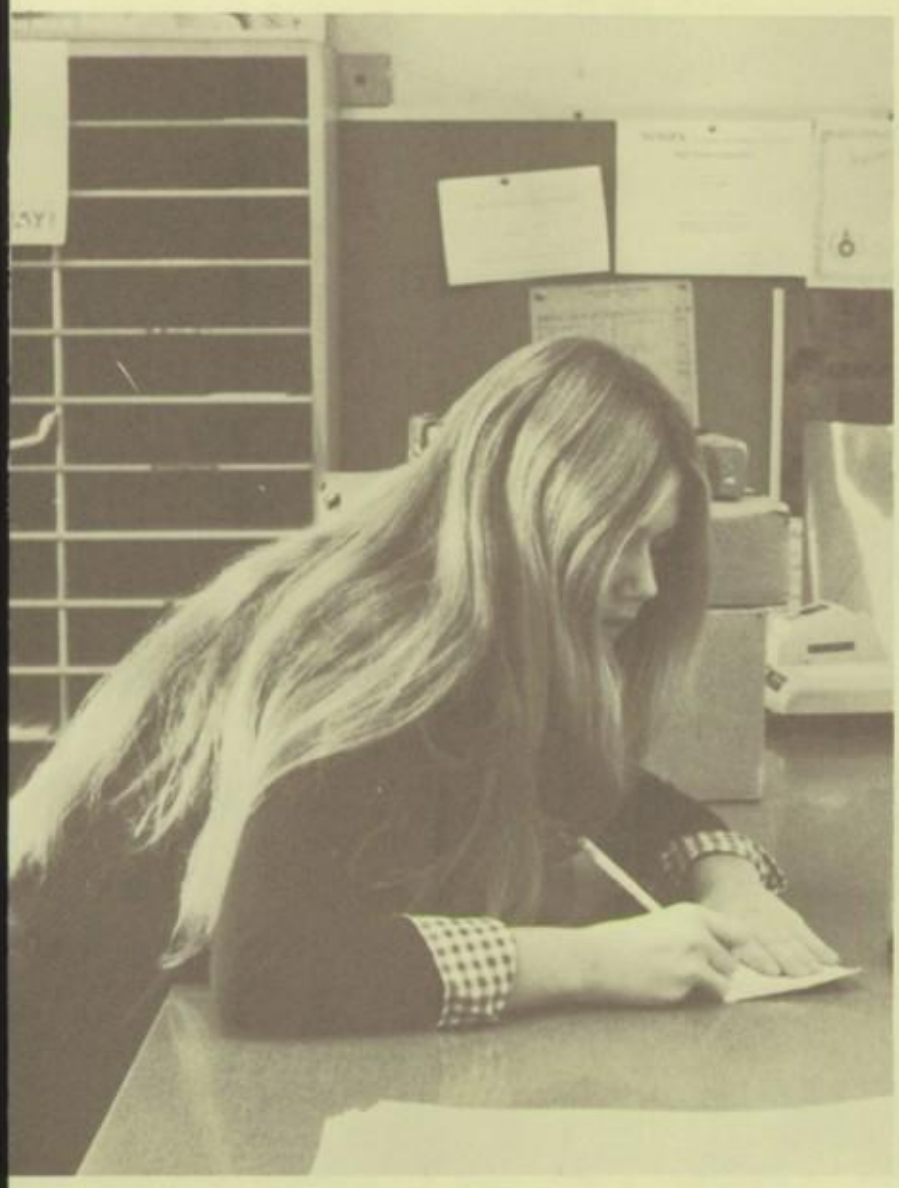
Looks like Alice Mulig had a bad day.

Hey you guys, how much farther does this spirit chain go?



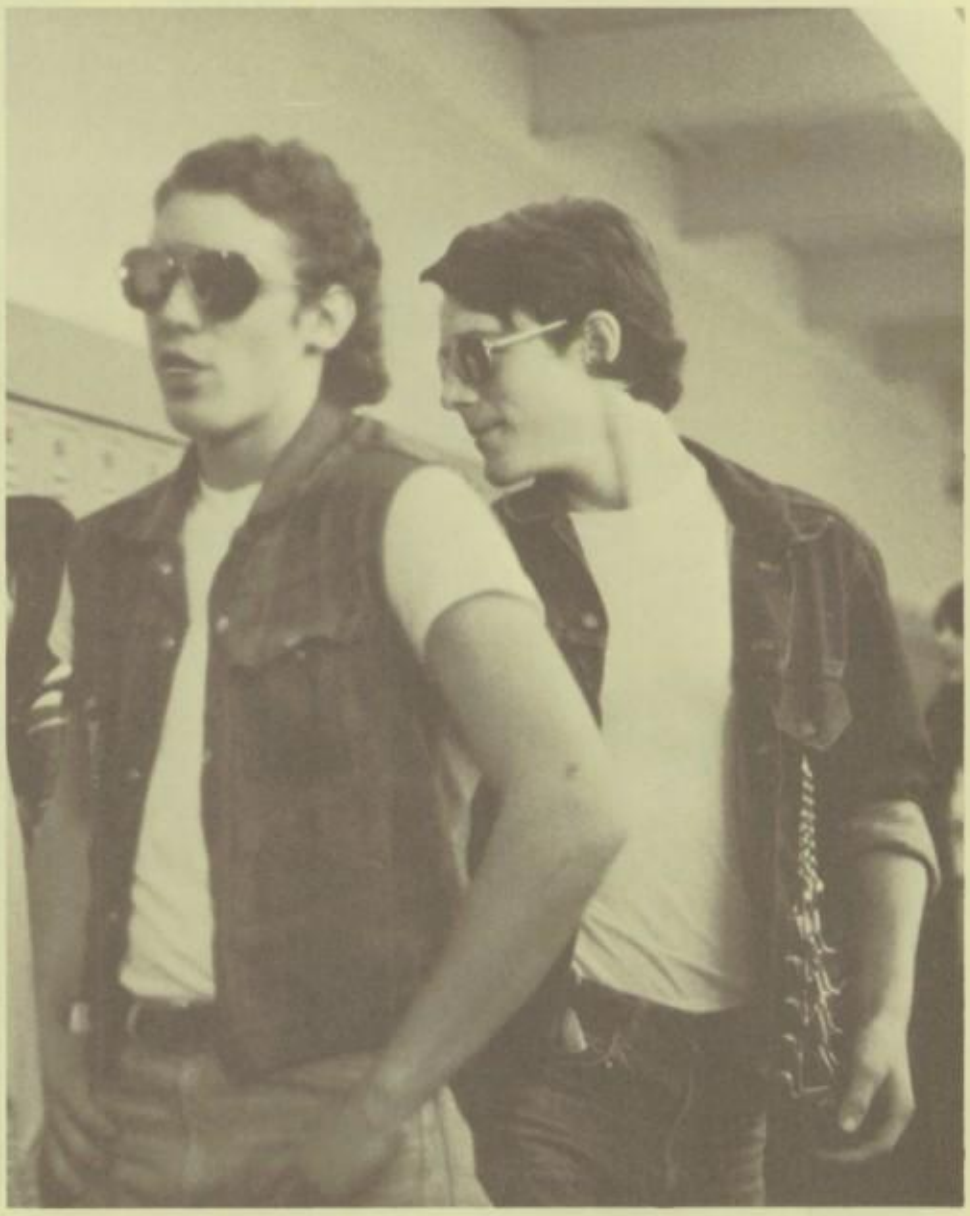
I wonder if he'll ask me out?





I use Long and Silky, and it really works.

Sue Heyard gabs in the hall, and is late for class.



Pssst. Where did you get your shades?

Ray DeGramo smiles for the photographer.

I knew I should of studied for this test.

Do you see what I see?

Boy, does that look good.

Let me see, it is around here somewhere.

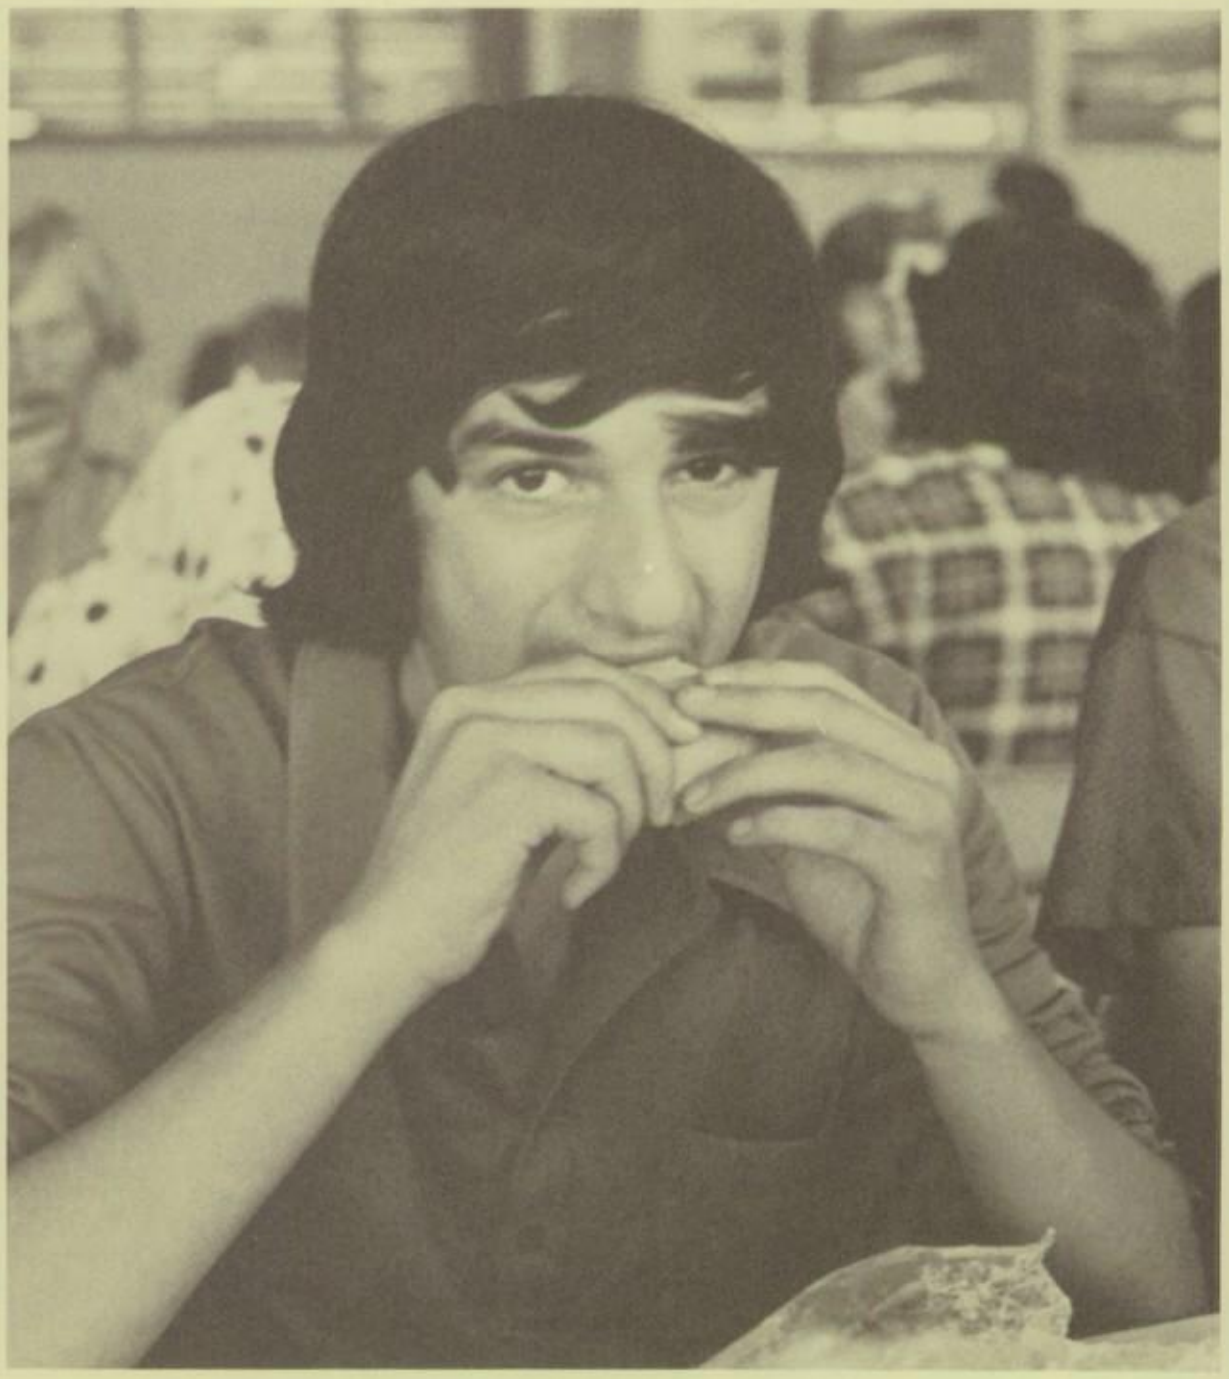
I'll tell you the rest in my note.

Lunch is my favorite class.

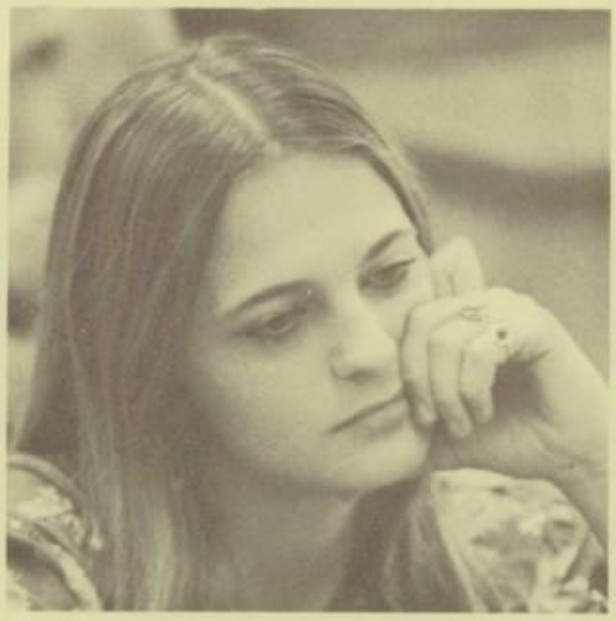
We're really supposed to be in study hall but . . .

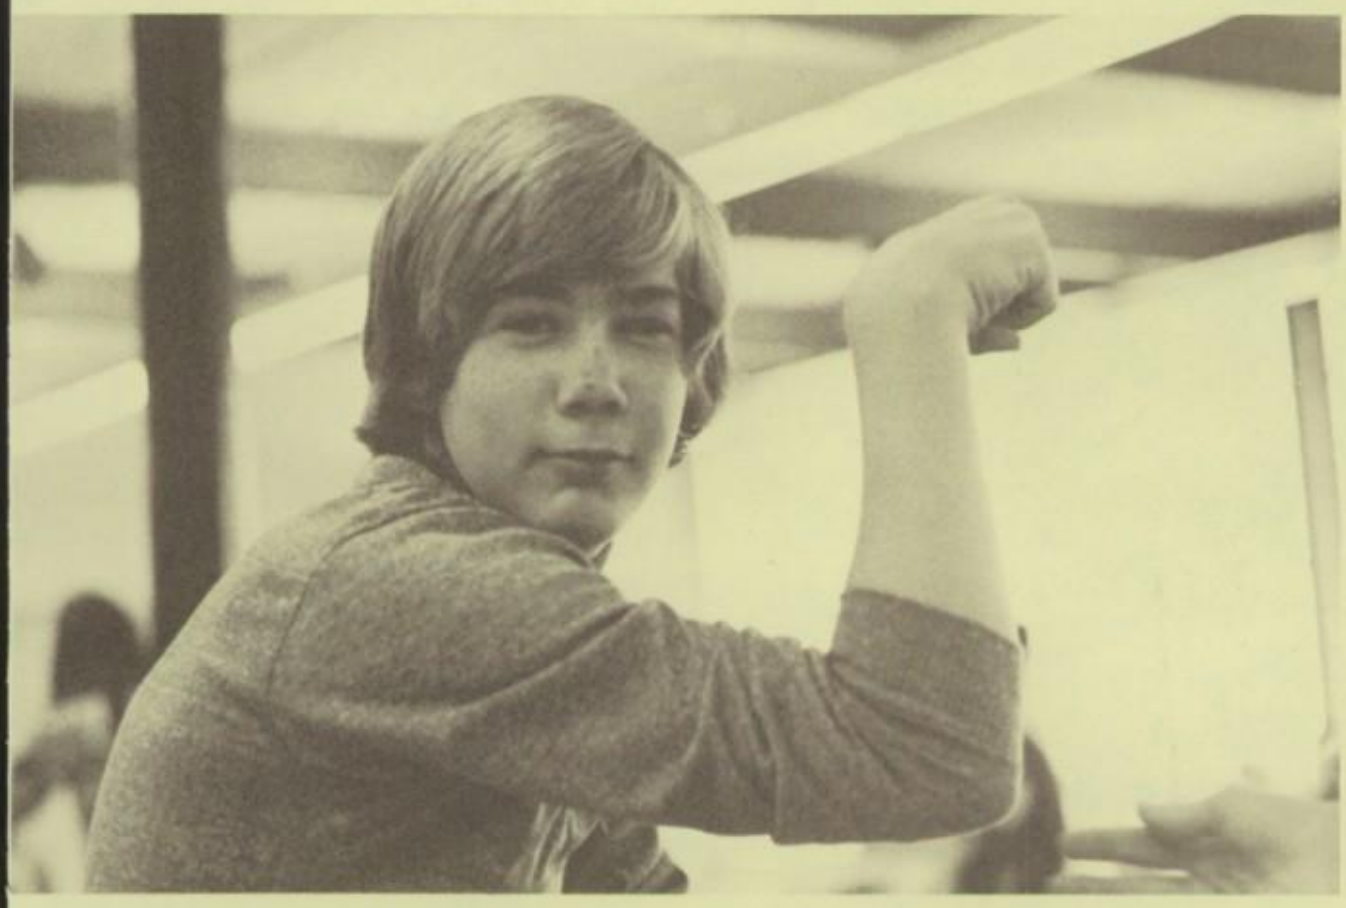
I told you it was in there.

The comforts of school.

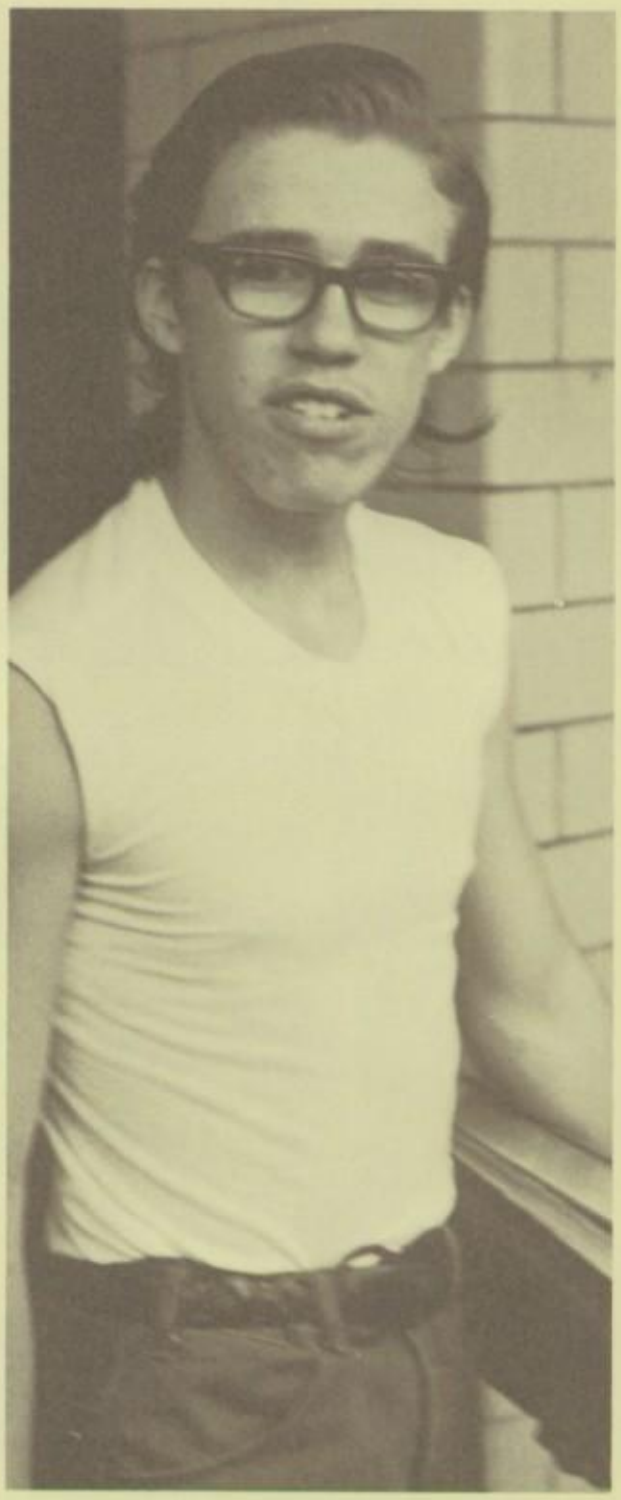


My mom makes the best sanswiches.

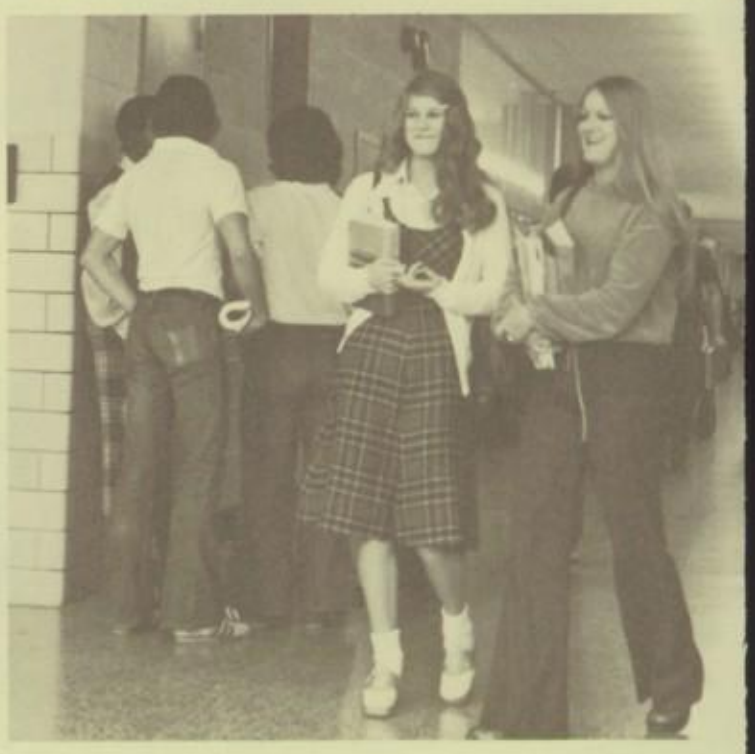




I've always had this problem with my wrist.



Sure I use Vitalis.



Sally Kandel prefers the floor to a desk.

Nick Campanelli trys to hide behind his crutches, but he's not that skinney!

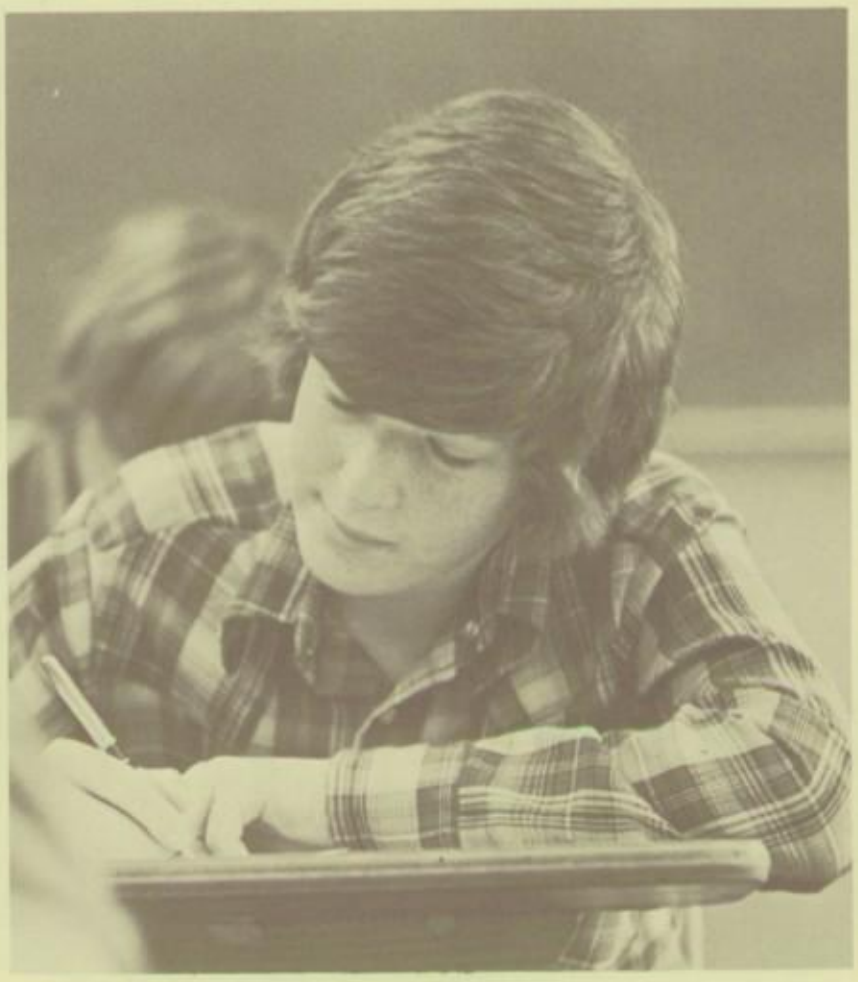
I told you to stop following me.

See mom, I always drink my milk.

I have this thing for bubble gum.



I don't know what I would do without this pen.

A typical day in freshmen choir class.

Of course I don't dress like this everyday!

Hang in there you guys, it's almost Friday.

Can you spare a dime?

The halls were cluttered with students dressed like this the day of the 50's dance.

Boys and Girls State: L to Right--Don Peloso, Linda Tucci, Ted Spidle.

Girls' State was held at Capital University and was one of the most meaningful experiences of my entire life. Girls from all over Ohio came together and set up a moch state government in which I was mayor of my city. It included such experiences as a bomb scare, tornado warnings, and being picketed by the handicapped.

--L. T.

Boys' State is an attempt to imitate the government. In order to increase the participants understanding of the state procedures elections are held to choose officials for the week. We did learn quite a bit about the actual way a government functions. It was truly a rewarding experience for everyone attending it.

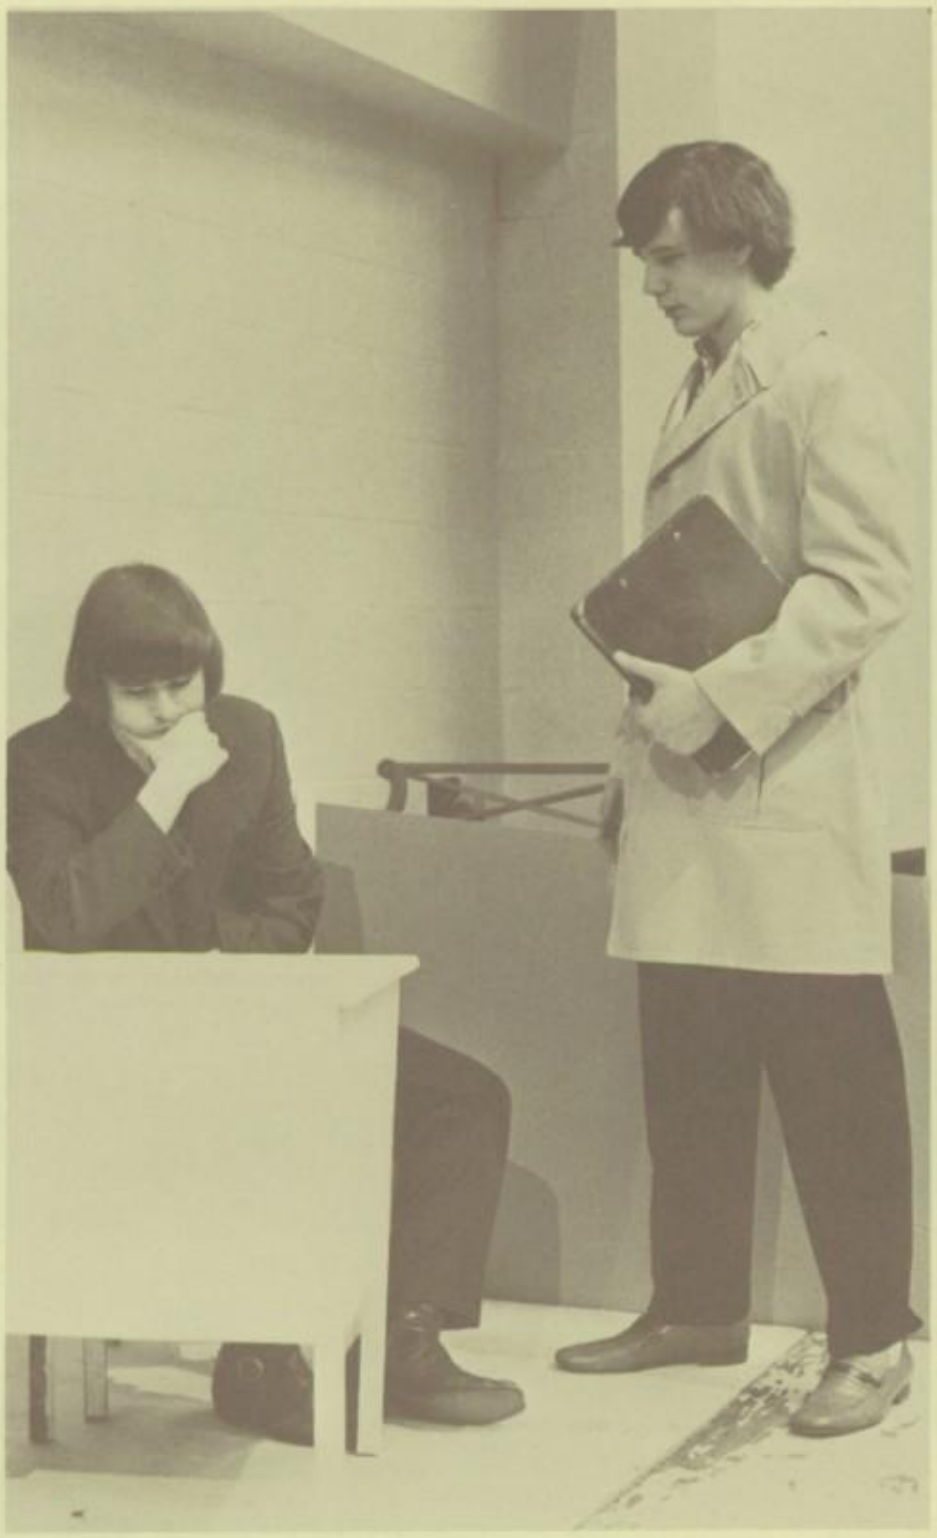
A busy moment in Maraczek's Parfumerie.

Shoppers and carolers anticipating Christmas.



Mr. Maraczek ponders the detective's report on his wife.

A lovers' spat while Christmas decorating.

"He shot himself accidentally. He was cleaning his gun."

OUR ALMA MATER

Glenwood, our alma mater dear,
Where e'er we go thy loyal praise we hear.
Sportsmanship, scholarship, both are of thy fame.
Glenwood greatly loved and honored be thy name.

Glenwood the mighty red and blue
Glad are all our thoughts of you.
Sportsmanship, scholarship, both are of thy fame.
Glenwood greatly loved and honored be thy name.

The 1975 GLEA Staff would like to thank all of the Parent Patrons who generously contributed to the yearbook. Because of their aid, such special effects as the senior fold-out, duo toning and ghosting of pictures were possible. To all of those who contributed, we would like to say "thank you!"

In Memory of Bill Carnahan

February 11, 1975 proved to be "D-Day" for the fate of Glenwood High School. The levy that was necessary to keep the two schools separate was defeated. This was not entirely the fault of the voters but the economical situation of today.

Quite a few students, such as Paul Shinkle and Lisa Colaianni, worked for the passage of the levy, but their dedication was in vain. The failure effected each student, and each has his own emotion about the combining of the two schools. As for the seniors, they will represent the last graduating class of Glenwood High School.

After 18 years of crowded halls, lunch lines, pep assemblies, and many other unforgetable memories, there will be no longer be a Glenwood High School.

We hope this book has helped to preserve the many memories we have experienced and enjoyed. In reality, Glenwood is a "Place in our Past."

Staff Members

Sitting, Left to Right: Merle Kramer--faculty and activities editor, Marsha Reed--business manager, Joan Lowery--copy, Denise DeGarmo--layout. Standing: Kevin Murphy--sports, Joanne Brody--underclass, Ellen Mann--faculty and activities, Ann Greenberger--bookkeeper. Absent--Cassandra Trifelos--photographer, Lisa Varavvas--faculty and activities, Sherry Petraroli--index, Annette Saliola--underclass, Paul Malanij--artist, and Dave Myers--photographer.

Well, that's it. The 1975 GLEA. For Bob New and Lori Zaytzeff, we as co-editors have learned a great deal during the past year from others, each other, and ourselves. On our way to State College, Pennsylvania in May of 1974, for a tour of Josten's American Yearbook Company, Mrs. Snavely told us we were chosen to be co-editors for the '75 book. From that moment on we made a promise to make decisions together, and to stick to our "guns" as far as goals and guidelines go.

The finished product is a milestone in the lives of those staff members who worked hard and put many hours of dedication into it. But all the credit certainally doesn't belong to the students on staff, because there were quite a few people behind the scenes who deserve something more than a "thank you" for the over time they put in. Now we would like to show our appreciation to those special people who showed us in more ways than one, just how much they cared.

To Mr. Walter Troup of Troup and Pluto Studios--Thank you for your help and cooperation during the senior picture process.

To all faculty members--Thank you for cooperating with us during underclass and activities pictures. At times the interruptions and announcements were unnerving, but they were necessary.

To Dick Gotschell, photographer from Troup and Pluto. You are a true professional, and we are grateful to you for helping us fit color pictures into our theme. Not only did Dick take all the color pictures, but all the activity pictures, formal sports pictures and most of the sports candid pictures. At times around deadlines, when we needed some pictures developed immediately Dick always came through for us.

To Mr. Larry Snavely--Thank you for coming to our rescue in pasting up the color section. With our your suggestions, the book would have lacked that special touch.

To all the Parent Patrons--Again we say "thanks" for your support. It added new dimensions to the book and helped us reach our goals.

To all the staff members who did more than their share--The book itself is the reflection of your hard work. Thank you for sticking with us, and for keeping your cool in times of turmoil.

To Mr. Jim Buckman, Josten's American Yearbook Representative.--We are grateful to you for your ideas and the guidance you gave during the production of the book. You always found a solution for our problems and smoothed out the rough edges of the book.

And last but not least, Mrs. Molly Snavely--At times when deadlines rolled around, we had our hassels, but always found a happy medium. There were times when we stayed after school kinda late, maybe too late, and we thought of some zanny things we could put in the book. We had some pretty good laughs during the past year, and together we all kept the faith. Now that the headaches and chaotic times are behind us, we would like to say thank you for giving us one of the best experiences in our lives, and for just being you.

Sincerely,
Bob New and Lori Zaytzeff

Mary Ann,

A Zulu spear thrower of the first degree. Don't forget trying to stay awake during Mrs. Stock's boring lectures & movies. Remember to watch out for that little guy who walks up and down the & tightropes on the back of your head. I had a lot of fun this year, and hope you did too. Have a great summer. See you next year.

Phil (a Zulu spear hit me!)

Mary Ann,
To a sweet & cute ('77) girl who is a great friend to me. When are you ever going to learn how to drive a stick shift? Good luck in the future!

Jim '76

Mary Ann:
One of the funniest & nicest persons I know. I've had this idea for a while and wanted to share it with you. Hope you'll now find a true friend and maybe daydream a little. Maybe some day what becomes a story may become a movie and I'll appear as a true actor future "star". And a true friend. Always, "Mo" and a cute as you with need.
become luck in the future!
Good luck with ever turns out

Mary Ann,
To a girl I constantly outdoor in History. No, even though I do
put your down alone
I hope your in some of my classes next Year so I can continue to show you up!!
God Luck always

Mary Ann,
To a really good looking Lady who I've enjoyed talking to, setting next to, ect.
And I always will.
Good Luck!!

Mary Ann:
I've a person I know in the 9th grade and I just remember, I think he is about eight and remember
You were always of the smartest men
class this year
Good luck always

Mary Ann,

You're somebody I consider very special - although you sometimes forget certain things (how to walk, breathing, ect..) you are than make up for your few failings.
I'm very glad that I met you this year and I hope to know you along time to come. I'm not going to ask you not change, because if you do it will be for the better.

Love,
Ted Simms
